

SECRETJOURNAL*OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL*Thursday - 9 July 1964

1. [] Mr. Cary accompanied Mr. Echols and [] to a meeting with Senator Stuart Symington regarding the Agency decision not to take [] into the JOT program. As we anticipated, we were unable to convince Senator Symington of the sound basis for our determination in [] case. The Senator refused to accept the value of tests and brought two members of his office staff in to interrogate them in our presence to point out the strong feeling which everyone there had in support of [] After lengthy conversation, the matter was left on the basis that Senator Symington would not contact [] until Mr. Echols had had an opportunity to personally review [] case taking into consideration the Senator's personal evaluation of him and several recommendations. Mr. Echols indicated he would complete this review within 24 hours.

2. [] expressing our concern over Senator Javits' introduction of a bill on behalf of certain employees of Radio Free Europe who, because of their assignment abroad, prejudice their cases for naturalization under the Immigration and Nationality Act. [] said he had no idea as to what prompted this action on the part of the Senator unless it was the result of some previous contacts with Javits which occurred prior to the understanding [] that nothing would be done on this without full coordination with the Agency.
